Urban planning and simplified administrative procedure (PAS) for renewable energy plants. The limits of simplification.

Wednesday, January 8th, 2025 | From 1.30 to 3 p.m.

This lecture will focus on the relevance of urban planning in the permitting procedures for renewable energy power plants. In particular, we will analyze the simplified administrative procedure (PAS) scheme, in order to highlight the opportunities and limits of the simplification introduced by recent legislation, in light of the provisions and constraints of urban plans and their implementing rules. In this regard, we will examine the latest case law on the topic.
